Records of the First Congregational Church (UCC), Harwich, MA

The records of the First Congregational Church (UCC), Harwich, MA are divided into two series, Church Records (CR) and Parish Records (PR). The arrangement of the CR and PR series is chronological. A list of ministers and lay preachers with dates of their service is in CR 1961-1962 on page 2. All of the extant correspondence between the ministers and the Congregational Society and Parish is inserted in the records of the Church and Parish; the original arrangement has been maintained.

The categories Miscellaneous CR and Miscellaneous PR include those items which do not comprise a series. One item of particular interest in CR Miscellaneous is the Washburn Ms. This is a history written by Rev. George Y. Washburn for the 150th anniversary of the church.

All of the records of the First Congregational Church, Harwich that were placed on deposit at the Congregational Library are in this collection. In addition to these original record the Library has a microfilm copy of two 16mm reels, negative.

The records were deposited with the Congregational Library in 1981.
