Historical Note

Plans to build a Congregational church along Ridge Road, Littleton, Colorado, were begun in 1958. The name of the newly gathered church was decided in November 1959 by a vote in favor of Faith Congregational Church. The church's first minister was Rev. Gordon Blunt. The name of the church changed in 1967 to Littleton United Church of Christ when the church also decided to join with the United Church of Christ. The name of the church changed again in the 1980s to Ridge Road United Church. The church likely closed in 1993.
