Abstract:	The Union Congregational Church was Maynard's first parish. It was first founded on July 23, 1850 as the Evangelical Union Society. Its creation formed when eight members of the community met at the newly built railroad station and voted to organize a Sunday School. Amory Maynard was the first Superintendent. The Evangelical Union Society was incorporated in 1852 with the first parish being called the Union Church. On August 10, 1927, a constitution and bylaws were adopted and the church renamed itself The Union Congregational Church. The records contain information on financial, church and committee information, information on various clubs and photographs.

Historical Information

The Union Congregational Church was Maynard's first parish. It was first founded on July 23, 1850 as the Evangelical Union Society. Its creation formed when eight members of the community met at the newly built railroad station and voted to organize a Sunday School. Amory Maynard was the first Superintendent. The Evangelical Union Society was incorporated in 1852 with the first parish being called the Union Church. On August 10, 1927, a constitution and bylaws were adopted and the church renamed itself The Union Congregational Church. Lorenzo Maynard donated the funds for an additional educational building in the 1890's to house the growing Sunday school, outfitting it with a beautiful stained glass window visible from Main Street. The church continued to thrive through the 20th century and in the 1960's the church became affiliated with the United Church of Christ. The church continued operation until 2017 when the building was sold. Information gathered at: <http://maynarducc.org/AboutUs3.html>
